"Protecting Human Rights in Africa"

Training on Enterprise Risk Management (2-5 April 2024)

Library staff participated in the training on Enterprise Risk Management that took place from 2-5 April 2024 at the premises of the Court. The main purpose of the training was to identify and develop a risk management framework and register for the Court. It was facilitated by experts in risk management from AUC, AFCFTA and NEPAD.

Peer to peer visit to ECOWAS Court of Justice (22-26 April 2024)

The African Court undertook an exchange visit to the ECOWAS Court of Justice at its seat in Abuja, Nigeria from 22-26 April 2024. This was part of experience sharing and strengthening the existing relationship between the two Courts. The Library was represented by Mr. Augustino Haule in a delegation that was headed by the Head of Legal division, Prof Horace Adjolohoun.

Retreat on the review of the Court’s 2021-2025 strategic plan

The registry conducted a retreat on the review of the 2021-2025 strategic plan. This was held in Moshi from 24-27 March 2024.

The mid-term implementation report of the plan formed the key document guiding the review.

Training on stress management 4-6 February 2024

The registry conducted a stress management training for its staff from 4-6 February 2024. In Moshi town.

The training aimed to equip employees with the necessary knowledge and skills to support their own mental health and that of their colleagues, fostering a mentally healthy workplace.

African Court electronic library (E-Library)

The library is continuing its efforts in developing the African Court electronic library. An RFQ was sent out in April inviting bids for the e-library development. These bids were evaluated in May and the process is now awaiting the offer to the winning bidder. It is expected that the e-library should be in place by the end of the year.

Visitors to the Court Library

The Court library continues to be a center of attraction for many visitors to the Court. Their visit is not complete until they have been to the library. Recently the Court received students from Daystar University, Kenya and Goma Institute from the DRC (04 June 2024). They were given an intense lecture on the Court, its mandate and operations by Hon. Dennis Adjei, judge of the Court.
