The Court composed of: Ben KIOKO, Vice-President; Rafaâ BEN ACHOUR, Ângelo V. MATUSSE, Suzanne MENGUE, Tujilane R. CHIZUMILA, Chafika BENSAOULA, Blaise TCHIKAYA, Stella I. ANUKAM and Imani D. ABOUD, Judges; and Robert ENO, Registrar.

Pursuant to Articles 22 of the Protocol to the African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights on the Establishment of an African Court on Human and Peoples' Rights (hereinafter referred to as "the Protocol") and Rule 8(2) of the Rules of Court (hereinafter referred to as "the Rules"), Justice M-Thérèse MUKAMULISA, a national of Rwanda, did not hear the Application.

In the matter of:

self-represented

versus

REPUBLIC OF RWANDA, not represented

after deliberation,

I. THE PARTIES

1. Fidèle Mulindahabi (hereinafter referred to as "the Applicant") is a national of the Republic of Rwanda, residing in Kigali, who complains that he has been victim of violations as regards his urban transport business.
2. The Respondent State is the Republic of Rwanda which acceded to the African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights (hereinafter referred to as "the Charter") on 21 October 1986 and to the Protocol on 25 May 2004. Furthermore, on 22 January 2013, the Respondent State deposited the declaration prescribed under Article 34(6) of the Protocol, by which it accepts the jurisdiction of the Court to receive applications from individuals and Non-Governmental Organisations. On 29 February 2016, it notified the African Union Commission of its decision to withdraw the aforesaid Declaration, and on 3 March 2016, the African Union Commission notified the Court in this regard. On 3 June 2016, the Court issued an Order stating that the withdrawal of the declaration would take effect on 1 March 2017.<sup>1</sup>

II. SUBJECT OF THE APPLICATION

A. Facts of the matter

3. The Applicant alleges that on 21 March 2009, a police officer seized his vehicle on the grounds that it had no motor vehicle license and a spare tyre. He was fined twenty thousand Rwandan francs (RWF 20,000) and "as security for this payment the police seized the yellow card<sup>2</sup>." The Applicant avers that on 23 March 2009, he paid the fine of Twenty Thousand Rwandan Francs (RWF 20,000) but the yellow card was not given back to him.
4. He further alleges that "in complicity, his driver ... declared that he had lost the police charge sheet and the receipt, while the police declared verbally to him that they had lost his yellow card." Thereafter, the Applicant went to the tax office to obtain the duplicate of the yellow card but his efforts were all in vain. He argues that "later, through a conveyor [he] was able to recover the original of the charge sheet ... and that of the receipt".
5. The Applicant alleges that "pursuant to the provisions of Article 40 of Rwandan Law No. 34/1987 of 17/9/1987 on the road transport and traffic police, the payment of the fine puts an end to the government action. Consequently, the fine of twenty thousand Rwandan Francs (RWF 20.000) paid on 23/03/2009 erased the offence and [he] should have been re-established in [his] rights...". He states that "...However, this was not the case, the vehicle was not returned to him, but was rather parked for lack of a yellow card at a place where the soldiers of the Presidential Guard impounded the vehicle and confiscated it from the police.”

6. The Applicant alleges that he talked to the President of the Republic who was visiting the population on 8 June 2010, and that in spite of this initiative, the said vehicle was auctioned on 6 April 2011.

B. Alleged violations

7. The Applicant avers that the Respondent State:
  - i. violated his right to property provided under Articles 17(2) of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR) and 14 of the Charter;
  - ii. failed in its obligation to provide the requisite remedies pursuant to Article 2(3)(c) of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights;
  - iii. failed in its obligation to adopt legislative and other measures to give effect to the international instruments ratified, as provided under Article 1 of the Charter;
  - iv. violated his right to work provided under Article 6(1) of the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (ICESCR).

III. SUMMARY OF PROCEDURE BEFORE THE COURT

8. The Application was filed on 27 February 2017 and served on the Respondent State on 16 March 2017 with the request that it file its Response to the Application within sixty (60) days of receipt of the notice.
9. On 11 May 2017, the Registry received a letter from the Respondent State reminding the Court of its withdrawal of the declaration made under Article 34 (6) of the Protocol and informing the Court that it would not take part in any proceedings before the Court. It consequently requested the Court to desist from transmitting any information on cases concerning it until it finalises the review of the declaration and communicates its position to the Court.

10. On 22 June 2017, the Court sent a reply to the Respondent State, noting that "by virtue of the Court being a judicial institution and pursuant to the Protocol and Rules of Court, the Court is required to exchange all procedural documents with the parties concerned."
11. On 30 June 2017, the Application was transmitted to the Chairperson of the African Union Commission and, through him, to the Executive Council of the African Union and to the State Parties to the Protocol, in accordance with Rule 35(3) of the Rules.
12. On 5 October 2017, the Court proprio motu granted forty-five (45) days extension to the Respondent State to file its Response, indicating that it would proceed to issue a judgment in default should the Response not be filed.
13. Pursuant to Rule 63 of the Rules, the Court at its 49th Ordinary Session (16 April to 11 May 2018) decided that the merits of a case would be considered together with reparations. On 6 August 2018, the Applicant filed its submission on reparations and this was served on the Respondent State on 9 August 2018. The latter was invited to respond within thirty (30) days.
14. On 9 October 2018, the Court proprio motu granted thirty (30) days extension to the Respondent State to file its Response, indicating that that extension of time would be the final, and that it would proceed to render a judgment in default should the Response not be filed. The notification was sent by courier service to the Respondent State, which received the same on 11 October 2018.
15. Although the Respondent State received all the notifications, it did not respond to any of them. Consequently, in accordance with Rule 55 and in the interest of justice, the Court renders this judgment in default.<sup>3</sup>

IV. PRAYERS OF THE PARTIES

16. The Applicant prays the Court to take the following measures:

- i. order the State of Rwanda to pay him damages;
- ii. order the restitution of his vehicle or pay an equivalent amount in lieu;
- iii. recognize that Rwanda has violated the relevant legal human rights instruments which it ratified.

17. The Applicant also prays the Court to grant the following in terms of reparation:

- i. Return the minibus taxi, Toyota Hiace RAA 417H in its prior state or pay compensation in the amount of 40,349,100 RWF;
- ii. Pay daily compensation in the amount of 111,540 RWF from 23 March 2009 up to the date the vehicle is returned ;
- iii. The amount of 23,043,236,533 RWF being revenue on reinvestment;
- iv. Payment of 7.4% interest on income not received;
- v. The sum of 40,000,000 RWF as damages for the suffering endured;
- vi. The sum of 5,000,000 RWF for procedural costs in domestic courts and 3,000,000 before this Court;
- vii. Lawyers' fees before this Court.

18. The Respondent State having refused to participate in the proceedings did not make any prayers.

V. JURISDICTION

19. In terms of Article 3(1) of the Protocol the "jurisdiction of the Court shall extend to all cases and disputes submitted to it concerning the interpretation and application of the Charter, this Protocol and any other relevant Human Rights instrument ratified by the States concerned." Furthermore, according to Rule 39(1) of the Rules "the Court shall conduct preliminary examination of its jurisdiction ..."

20. Having conducted a preliminary examination of its jurisdiction, and noting that nothing on file indicates that it does not have jurisdiction, the Court therefore holds that:

- i. it has personal jurisdiction, given that the Respondent State is a party to the Protocol and has deposited the declaration under Article 34(6) thereof, which enabled the Applicant to access the Court in terms of Article 5(3) of the Protocol. On the other hand, the Application was filed within the one-year period set by the Court for the withdrawal of the declaration by the Respondent State to take effect;
- ii. it has material jurisdiction as it alleges the violation of Articles 1 and 14 of the Charter; Article 2(3)(c) of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (ICCPR); Article 6(1) of the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (ICESC); Article 17(2) of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR), all instruments ratified by the Respondent State, of which the Court is endowed with the power to interpret and apply, as per Article 3 of the Protocol;
- iii. it has temporal jurisdiction given that the alleged violations are continuous in nature since the Applicant's car remains confiscated<sup>4</sup>;
- iv. it has territorial jurisdiction given that the facts of the matter occurred in the territory of a State Party to the Protocol, that is, the Respondent State.

21. In view of the aforesaid, the Court finds that it has jurisdiction to consider the instant application.

VI. ADMISSIBILITY

22. Pursuant to Article 6(2) of the Protocol: "The Court shall rule on the admissibility of cases taking into account the provisions of Article 56 of the Charter". In accordance with 39(1) of the Rules: “the Court shall conduct preliminary examination of ... the admissibility of the application in accordance with articles 50 and 56 of the Charter and Rule 40 of these Rules.”

23. Rule 40 of the Rules, which in substance restates the provisions of Article 56 of the Charter, provides as follows:

“Pursuant to the provisions of Article 56 of the Charter to which Article 6(2) of the Protocol refers, Applications to the Court shall comply with the following conditions:

1. disclose the identity of the Applicant notwithstanding the latter’s request for anonymity;
2. comply with the Constitutive Act of the Union and the Charter;
3. not contain any disparaging or insulting language;
4. not be based exclusively on news disseminated through the mass media;
5. be filed after exhausting local remedies, if any, unless it is obvious that the procedure is unduly prolonged;
6. be filed within a reasonable time from the date local remedies were exhausted or from the date set by the Court as being the commencement of the time limit within which it shall be seized with the matter; and
7. not raise any matter or issues previously settled by the parties in accordance with the principles of the Charter of the United Nations, the Constitutive Act of the African Union, the provisions of the Charter or of any legal instrument of the African Union.”

24. The Court notes that the requirements set forth in Rule 40 are not in contention between the parties because the Respondent State did not take part in the proceedings. However, pursuant to Rule 39(1) of the Rules, the Court shall examine the conditions for admissibility of the Application.

25. The Court notes that the Applicant alleges that all the conditions of admissibility set out in Sub-Rules (1 to 7) of Rule 40 of the Rules have been met.

26. It is clear from the case file that the Applicant’s identity is known as well as his nationality. The Application is not incompatible with the Constitutive Act of the African Union and the Charter. It does not contain disparaging or insulting language, nor is it based exclusively on news disseminated through the mass media.

27. Regarding exhaustion of local remedies, the Applicant avers that he took steps to meet senior political and administrative authorities of the country, notably, the Police department, the Office of the Prosecutor, the Ministry of Infrastructure in charge of Transport, the Ministry of Internal Security in charge of the Police, the Ministry of Justice, the Ombudsman, the Prime Minister's Office, the Parliament, the Senate, the President of the Republic, the National Human Rights Commission, the Rwanda Transparency and the civil society.
28. The Applicant further contends that "seeking redress from courts was not envisaged because when presidential guards are involved in a matter, such a matter runs the risk of not being determined by the courts, and today the Application would have been inadmissible following the deadline after the remedy provided under Article 339 of Law No. 18/2004 of 26/6/2004 on the Civil, Commercial, Social and Administrative Procedure Code".
29. The Court notes that only ordinary judicial remedies must be exhausted<sup>5</sup> and this requirement may be dispensed with only if the said remedies are unavailable, ineffective, insufficient, or if the domestic procedures to pursue them are unduly prolonged<sup>6</sup>. In effect, the non-judicial remedies pursued by the Applicant are not considered material to the exhaustion of local remedies.
30. In the instant case, the Court notes that the Applicant has clearly acknowledged that he has not pursued local remedies alleging that, firstly, it such remedy would not yield any results because the soldiers of the Presidential Guard were involved and, secondly, that the deadline for filing an appeal had already lapsed as at the time the proceedings before the administrative and political authorities were concluded.

31. On the first allegation, the Court notes that, without any supporting evidence, the Applicant simply argues that the proceedings before the Respondent State's jurisdictions were futile because the soldiers of the Presidential Guard were involved. This Court has held that "general statements ... are not enough. More substantiation is required."<sup>7</sup> The Court therefore dismisses this allegation.

32. On the second allegation, the Court notes that the Applicant has not submitted his appeal before the domestic courts within reasonable time because, as he claims, he was attempting to seek resolution before the administrative and political bodies. However, nothing prevented the Applicant from pursuing non-judicial avenues at the same time as he pursued judicial remedies. He ought to have exercised the requisite remedies so as to exhaust the local remedies.

33. In light of the foregoing, the Court finds that the Applicant has not exhausted the remedies available in the Respondent State, and that none of the grounds adduced for not doing so, falls within the exceptions provided under Rule 40(5) of the Rules.

34. Having found that domestic remedies have not been exhausted, and considering that the conditions for admissibility are cumulative, the Court will not proceed to examine the last condition of admissibility set out in Rule 40 of the Rules.<sup>8</sup>

35. Based on the foregoing, the Court declares the application inadmissible.

VII. Costs

36. The Court notes that Rule 30 of its Rules provides that: "unless otherwise decided by the Court, each party shall bear its own cost."

37. In view of the above circumstances, the Court rules that each party shall bear its own costs.

VIII. OPERATIVE PART

38. For these reasons,

THE COURT,

Unanimously:

- i. Declares that it has jurisdiction;*
- ii. Declares that local remedies have not been exhausted;*
- iii. Declares that the Application is inadmissible;*
- iv. Declares that each Party shall bear its own costs.*
